Read and Write Kalamazoo exists to celebrate and amplify youth voices through the cultivation of reading and writing skills via joy, creativity, equity, and access.

Lincoln International Studies School students in grades K–5 had the opportunity to sharpen their skills as writers through participation in our RAWK Readers’ Room. They explored poetry and other writing genres, working alongside Bre Burnside and Marcus Buchanan one to two times per week during trimesters 1 and 2. RAWK provides writing as an enrichment and extension of learning as part of our building-wide intervention block this year. The community partnership with Read and Write Kalamazoo affords our students equitable access to joy and creativity within the walls of our school as a learning extension and enrichment for our young people.

A special thanks to RAWK Executive Director Dr. Kandace Lavender for her vision, continued support, and advocacy for RAWK programming being offered within Kalamazoo Public Schools. To RAWK staff Members Bre Burnside, Marcus Buchanan, and JaMeelah Williams, the Director of In-School Programs, thank you for being a part of cultivating the Lincoln International Studies School vision to provide an academically rigorous, structured, literacy-focused learning environment where all students strive to meet high expectations while acting responsibly, staying on-task, always caring, and being respectful.

As Lincoln’s building principal and Read and Write Kalamazoo board member, I am committed to amplifying and celebrating youth voices, and this anthology represents such important work.

- Principal Dionna Roberts

Read and Write Kalamazoo exists, in large part, because of community members like YOU who continue to join us in celebrating and amplifying youth voices in Kalamazoo.

We would also like to express deep gratitude to the following foundations and organizations for their support and belief in RAWK's mission:

KYDNetwork, The Dorothy Dalton Foundation, The Irving S. Gilmore Foundation, The Kalamazoo Community Foundation, The Stryker Johnston Foundation, The Lawrence and Sylvia Wong Foundation, The Okun Foundation, The Harold and Grace Upjohn Foundation and the many individual donors for the monetary contributions we received throughout the year that show your belief in our passion to celebrate and amplify youth voices.

We would also like to thank our board of directors for giving their time, energy, and expertise to furthering RAWK's mission.

Special thanks to Keleigh Anderson for the title of this publication.

 I Was Nervous And 25% Clapped And Then She Said Now For The Second Dish I Was The Second
Dish And I Was So Happy 75% Clapped For Me
 The Winner Is CJ/Christian I Was So Happy I Got The Trophy The Trophy Was A Gold Knife
I Walked Up To Brooklyn And Said At Least You Tried
She Replied Thank You You Did Good As Well
 I said Thank You. Then I Went Home I Was So Happy To Take A Nap After The Long Day
 Of A Big Battle Then I Woke Up To Take A Shower Eat Dinner Then I Went Back To Sleep
 And Then Woke Up To Anonymous Call!!
 I Answered And It Was A Scratchy voice
The Person Said I Seen You at The Chef Battle
And I Called To Tell You Watch Your Back
 I Replied And Said I Don't Know
 Who You Are But Leave Me Alone
 Then I Hung Up I Went Back To Sleep
Then I Woke Up To My Grandma Calling Me
 To Congratulate Me It Made Me Happy I
Even Forgot About What Happened Earlier
Until I Got In The Shower And Got Interrupted By A Call
By The Same Number That Called Me Earlier And Said I

Know Where You Live And I Replied And Said You Need To Leave Me Alone Or Else And He Said Or Else What I Said Come And See He Replied Ok
And I Thought It Was One Of My Friends Playing With Me So I Thought Nothing Of It And I Finished My Shower And Then I Got Out And Got Dressed And I Saw A Black Shadow Outside
My Window Then I Heard A Knock At My Door
I Looked No One Was Out There So I Put My Shoes On And Went On About My Day
Then When I Went To Mall And Got Another Call
From A Unknown Number Again He Said I See You And Then I Heard A Song
Have You Seen The Ghost Of John
I Ran For My Life
And Went Home And It Was Night Time So
I Took A Nice Hot Shower And Went To Bed
Then I Heard The Song Again
Have You Seen The Ghost Of John
I Just Thought I Was Being Paranoid So I
Got Under My Covers And Went To Sleep
Then I Got Another Call From The Unknown Number
I Ignored It
THE END
